(John 1:35-39) The next day John again was standing with two of his disciples, and as he watched Jesus walk by he exclaimed "Look, here is the Lamb of God!" The two disciples heard him say this, and they followed Jesus. When Jesus turned and saw them following, he said to them, "What are you looking for?" They said to him "Rabbi" (which translated means Teacher), "where are you staying?" He said to them, "Come and see where I live." They came and saw where he was staying, and they remained with him that day.

(John 1:43, 45-47) The next day Jesus decided to go to Galilee. He found Philip and said to him "Follow me." Philip found Nathanael and said to him, "We have found him about whom Moses in the Law and also the Prophets wrote, Jesus son of Joseph from Nazareth." Nathanael said to him, "Can anything good come out of Nazareth?" Philip said to him, "Come and see."

(Matthew 11:28-30) Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

(Matthew 9:9) As Jesus was walking along, he saw a man called Matthew sitting at the tax booth; and he said to him, 'Follow me.' And he got up and followed him.

(Matthew 14:25-29) Early in the morning he came walking toward them on the sea. But when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were terrified, saying, "It is a ghost!" And they cried out in fear. But immediately Jesus spoke to them and said, "Take heart, it is I; do not be afraid." Peter answered him, "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water. He said "Come." So Peter got out of the boat, started walking on the water, and came toward Jesus.

(John 10:27) My sheep hear my voice. I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they will never perish. No one will snatch them out of my hand.
